APPROVED SCHEME

1. The stage carriage services on all the routes/areas, whether inter-State or the routes situated within the State of Haryana, except the routes mentioned in the Schedule shall be provided by the State Transport Undertaking, namely, Haryana Roadways, in complete exclusion of other persons.
2. The stage carriage services on the routes mentioned in the Schedule shall be provided by the State Transport Undertaking, namely, Haryana Roadways, in partial exclusion of other persons. The services on such routes may, in addition, be provided by private operators in accordance with provisions of this Scheme.
3. Any person of Haryana domicile, society, firm or company registered in Haryana and Local Bodies within their respective jurisdiction, in the State shall be eligible to apply for permit under this Scheme. A society, firm, company or an individual person shall be eligible to apply only for one permit under the Scheme. No society, firm, company or family in case of an individual applicant (family means the applicant, his/her spouse and their minor children) shall be granted more than one permit under this Scheme:

Provided that the existing permit holders under the 1993 and 2001 Schemes, who have no road tax, passenger tax and bid money pending towards them on the date of application, shall first be given an option to obtain permit under this Scheme in lieu of their existing permit as per the following procedure:-

- (i) The existing permit holders shall be given an option to obtain permits on their existing routes included in the Schedule. If the number of permits mentioned against a particular route included in the Schedule falls short of the number of eligible applicants, the number of permits on such route shall be deemed to have increased equal to the number of eligible applicants.
- (ii) The remaining existing permit holders who do not give option on their existing route shall be asked to indicate their choices on ten routes/permits out of the remaining routes/permits included in the Schedule in order of preference. Remaining routes/permits means routes/permits after allotment of permits as per sub-clause (i). If the number of applicants on a particular route is more than the number of remaining permits, the permits shall be allotted through draw of lots. In case, an existing permit holder is not able to get permit as per his first choice, his second choice and so on and so forth will be considered. In case no permit has been granted out of the ten choices, the permit holder shall be asked to give option on another ten routes/permits. The process will go on till all the existing permit holders are allotted the permits.
- (iii) The existing permit holders shall be given the preference in the districts where they are holding the permits. After allotment of permits to the permit holders belonging to a district, the permit holders of other districts shall be given option to apply for permits out of the remaining routes/permits included in the Schedule. Such permit holders shall be allotted permits as per the procedure mentioned in sub-clause (ii).

- (iv) No additional permit shall be granted to any private operator or Co-operative Transport Society or any of its members already holding a stage carriage permit.
 - (v) The routes and permits of the existing permit holders under the 1993 and 2001 Scheme, who continue to ply on their existing routes, on which they have been granted permits by the Transport Authority, not included in the Schedule, shall in addition be deemed to have become part of the Schedule of this Scheme.
4. After adjusting the private permit holders of 1993 and 2001 schemes in the above mentioned manner, applications for grant of remaining permits shall be invited. If the number of eligible applicants exceeds the number of permits to be granted on a particular route, the permits shall be granted to the eligible applicants through draw of lots.
5. No extension, curtailment, variation or alteration in the route shall be allowed under the Scheme and the Scheme shall override the provisions of Chapter-V of Motor Vehicles Act, 1988 (Central Act 59 of 1988) in this regard:

Provided that partial variation in the route may be allowed on temporary basis only in those cases where part of allotted route becomes non-motorable after commencement of operations by the permit holder. The variation shall be allowed in such a way that as far as possible the villages/towns falling on the non-motorable portion of the allotted route are served, keeping the starting and terminating point of the route unchanged. Total variation in the allotted route shall not exceed twenty four kilometres or twice the length of the non-motorable portion of the allotted route, whichever is less. Such temporary variation shall be allowed till the time the original allotted route of the permit holder becomes motorable and the permit holder shall return to his original allotted route as soon as it becomes motorable.

6. Permits shall be granted as per the terms and conditions fixed and as per the procedure prescribed by the State Government, State Transport Authority or Regional Transport Authority.
7. The State Government may, at any time, keeping in view the traffic demand and other relevant factors, revise the number of permits on any particular route included in the Schedule or include additional routes in the Schedule or make alteration in any route included in the Schedule.
8. The permit holder under the 1993 and 2001 schemes shall continue to ply his bus on his existing route in the same manner as before, till a date to be decided by the Government.
